

THIS REALLY BRINGS BACK MEMORIES...

YEAH.

What?

You can really use the postbox next to the store?

YOU CAN JUST GIVE IT TO ME DIRECTLY...

WELL THEN,
I'LL SEND YOU
A LETTER USING THAT POSTBOX
NEXT TIME!

IS THAT RIGHT? I THOUGHT IT WAS JUST FOR DECOR-RATION.

THEY COME TO PICK IT UP EVERY DAY.

Lots of things can go wrong
by where people
are standing.
Here "Kawaii" is all!

OH, YEAH!

glance

...

...

OH!

What?

WHAT?

THAT'S RIGHT!
ANYWAY, IT WAS PROBABLY SASAKI-KUN
WHO DROPPED
IT, SO...

YULI-SAN,
THAT'S NOT A GOOD REASON TO LOOK AT THE LETTER.

Please put it away

"DEAR MISS SUNFLOWER."

IT SAYS,

...HUH?

"DEAR
MISS
SUN-FLOWER,

Dear Miss Sunflower,

I'm sorry for writing you a letter like this or actually bothering you that this must be a bother for you but I'm writing to tell you my feelings.
I've loved books since I was a boy.
I've been reading them or writing them myself, and [□□] (Middle section omitted.)

I think that

I have been fascinated by you ever since I entered high school and first saw you

reading a book so happily
in the Sunflower Bookery.

...I'VE ALWAYS LOVED YOU.*

I'LL GO ASK
SASAKI-KUN DIRECTLY AND CONFIRM IT!

I UNDER-STAND!

YUU.

OH NO,
YOU LEFT OFF THE HONORIFIC.

YOU SOUND LIKE MISS SUNFLOWER!

MA-TSURI?

I SHALL SOON RETURN!

STEP
STEP

shake

TH-....

it would be a problem.

HER NAME IS MATSURI-CHAN, RIGHT?

SHE MIGHT BRING THAT BOY BACK HERE.

THIS HAS REALLY GOTTEN INTERESTING.
